Mr. Allen W. Dulles Sullivan & Cromwell 48 Wall Street, New York 5, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

As you know, I have now taken over from General Vandenberg as the Director of Central Intelligence and, realizing the importance and the necessity for retaining your assistance, I bespeak your continued guidance and hope that I may feel free to call on you at any time for advice both regarding the internal and external affairs of this agency. Thile the natural summer let-down in all activities will probably preclude the Board of Consultants getting together as a body, if enything does come up, may I call upon you?

At the present time I am in the thick of things, as you can well imagine, but I trust that upon your return to the States I shall see you personally. When you come to Washington, I hope that you will be kind enough to contact me as I should very much like to have the opportunity of talking to you.

In the meantime, with very best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

A/RNH

R. H. HILLENKOUTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence
